

The University Club

NEW YORK'S PREMIER SOCIAL CLUB

More than an architectural landmark,
The University Club is an institution steeped in tradition and focused on the future.

The image shows a highly ornate, multi-layered gold frame. The innermost frame is a simple gold line. The next layer is a wide band featuring a repeating pattern of small, dark, classical columns. The outermost layer is a thick, richly carved band with floral and scrollwork motifs. In the center of this frame is a rectangular painting of a sky with soft, billowing clouds in shades of white, yellow, and light blue, with a hint of a horizon line at the bottom.

Ceiling of The Main Dining Room

Considered one of the premier private social clubs in the world, The University Club was completed in 1899 by the legendary architects McKim Mead & White in the style of an Italian Renaissance palazzo.

The Club House is one of New York's more recognizable landmarks and listed on the National Register of Historic Places, and it's conveniently located in the heart of New York City at 54th and 5th.

The University Club

The image shows a vast, opulent room with deep red walls and a ceiling adorned with intricate gold leaf patterns. Large, arched windows with heavy, light-colored curtains are spaced along the walls. The room is furnished with dark wood tables, chairs, and a large sofa. Several lamps with warm, yellow light are placed throughout the room, including wall sconces and table lamps. A large, patterned rug covers the floor. The overall atmosphere is one of historical elegance and grandeur.

Within our walls, the Gilded Age comes alive.

The Percy Douglas Reading Room

Elegant Dining

The University Club is recognized around the world for its fine cuisine, outstanding wine cellar, and elegant surroundings.

Food & Beverage Director, Terrance Brennan, is a Michelin-starred chef, having honed his skills in renowned kitchens in both New York City and Europe.

The University Club's menus explore unique combinations of farm-fresh vegetables, grass-fed meats, and pristine seafood, reflecting the palates, preferences, and dietary needs of today's members.
